your body doesn't always give alerts

so get screened

It's important to get a wellness checkup every year and stay up to date on health screenings because many health conditions don't cause symptoms until they're serious. Most serious health conditions and diseases can be prevented or are easier to treat if you catch them early.

Utah Department of Health & Human Services

up2date.utah.gov